ADMINISTRATION

Leadership is an important part of being a teacher, and our teachers are the best. They are always there pointing and sometimes shoving us in the direction. Sometimes we disagreed and sometimes we didn't do what they wanted us to, but they are our teachers and we're proud of them.

To the Class of 1994,

I would like to take this time to congratulate you on the accomplishment of earning your diploma and graduating from Pocahontas High School. Each of you should feel proud of this achievement, as I am proud of each and every one of you. It is something that you worked extremely hard for and the rewards of this should last a lifetime.

I hope that each of you will dwell on the experiences with which school provided you, and those of which you learned from. You have served your school well over the past years, and I urge all of you to be a leader in your community and in all of your endeavors after graduation. Also, be eager to take advantage of the opportunities that you are provided. The world awaits bright, ambitious, and courageous individuals such as yourselves, so do not be afraid to dream big, but rather let this stand as evidence to the world that you are full of potential. I wish you well — and as I have always told you — the future holds great promise for those who believe in themselves and are prepared for it. Congratulations!

SENIORS

Those were the days and we thought they would never end, but they have and despite the challenges we made it! We're taking a lot of memories with us, the football games, the dances, the times we laughed, the times we cried, and even the times we fought. But we've always remained friends.

Sometimes when I dream,
I see a better place,
where people are judged by quality
and not by gender or race.
I see no death or strife;
and then I know I'm dreaming,
because those are facts of life.
I wish that things were different,
that equality might not fail,
but I know that it won't happen
as long as hate prevails.
So every night I enter my dreams to the land where all is fair and hope that someday I will never have to return from there.

UNDERCLASS

People flow in and out of our lives, they influence us and our outlook on life. We never have to worry about being alone when these people are always near. Let's make the best of our last years at P.H.S.

CLASS OF 1995

In August 1991, an adventure began for the Class of 1995 through the world of high school. Starting out as freshmen, we were frightened but excited. Then came our sophomore year. Our nerves had calmed down but the excitement carried on. Now it is our junior year. One more year till we are "Superior Seniors." From participating in International Food Day to decorating for the Junior-Senior Prom, the juniors have gone through many things together. Stay tuned to see if we complete our adventure successfully.

CLASS OF 1997

The first year of high school is here and now our academic credits start to count for graduation. We start to worry about our grades, now, we look to see if that girl or guy likes me. This is a time of change, but it's also the beginning of the best days of our lives. We'll make the best of it because time will fly by fast.

CLASS OF 1999

The transition from grade school to high school has been a big step for the seventh graders at P.H.S. We once sat in one class all day, but now we switch every hour. We have made many friends in our new atmosphere. It has been an exciting time and many memories will remain with us for years to come. We are the class of 1999.

SPORTS

This year was another great year for sports at P.H.S. Our football team made their third playoff appearance in four years. It was another outstanding year for our junior high football team. We're expecting great things from our second year girl's volleyball team. Our varsity boy's basketball team is one of the best teams in recent years. All of the athletes work very hard and strive to do their best to make sports at P.H.S. a success!

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost
